

- How often do you see the glow of an LCD screen coming from the back seat of an SUV or mini van? The installed base of Mobile A/V units is in the millions, and most often the viewers are small kids. Sony has developed a new headphone specifically designed for children. It is smaller than regular sized headphones, has a cord that lower the volume, and is lightweight for longer listening times.

Exciting New Product! – Headphones Made Special for Children!

MDR-222KD - $14.99

New Headphones for Children

MDR-222KD

SPPG: $14.99

- Small headphones for children
- High impedance cord lowers the volume on the headphones
- Light weight for long time listening
- Colors: Black, Pink
- Available Now!

PIN

BLK

